

Contest rules 2011 : <<Planète Femmes>>

Open to French Institute students and members only

The «Fondation Alliance Française» (the FAF), is organizing a photography contest.

The topic is “Women on the planet”.

The objective is to photograph the women in your country with your culture.

The pictures must be original (not copied).

Each Alliance participating in the contest will select its own winner and submit his/her work to the FAF. The FAF will subsequently select a final winner.

The final winner will be invited to Paris for one week (only airfare and lodging provided by the FAF).

His/her photographs will be exposed with the others laureates, in a chosen place by the FAF, then at the end of January 2012 in the FAF Gallery for the 34th International Colloquium of the French Alliance.

Thereafter they will be exhibited in a Parisian gallery for an individual show.

Moreover some selected photos will be published in Courier International magazine.

The French Institute winner will also receive a gift certificate for French classes (a basic 10 or 12 week course).

The winner of the French Institute will be selected on September 1st, 2011 and will be informed directly. His/her name will be published in our website and in our newsletter. The final winner and runners-up will be selected between October 12 and October 17, 2011 by the jury of the FAF and will be informed by email or telephone. The results will also be published at www.fondation-alliancefr.org after October 17, 2011.

The contest is free and open to students and members of all ages who are not recognized/paid professional photographers. Each contestant must register at the French Institute.

Participants will need to provide 2 photos by August 26, 2011. JPEG file (1Mo Maximum) with a resolution of 3500 x 4700 pixels and 300 DPI.
